

Enough is Enough Campaign

The Clothesline Project

Monday, November 2nd - Friday, November 6th
Cushing Lobby

Sponsored by the Multicultural Center

Stand united with people affected by violence by stopping by the Cushing Lobby to make a t-shirt and/or visit the display.

Silent Witness Project

Monday, November 2nd - Friday, November 6th
Cushing Building, Dana Center Lobby, Davison & Geisel Library

Sponsored by the Multicultural Center

The Silent Witness Project is a traveling memorial honoring women who were murdered from acts of domestic violence. Each life-sized silhouette represents a woman who was murdered by a spouse, significant other, or ex-partner.

Motivations of Violent Behavior Book Display

Monday, November 2nd - Friday, November 6th
Geisel Library (Upper Level)

Sponsored by Geisel Library

Geisel Library will display titles from their collection that explore why individuals exhibit and participate in violent behavior.

"Macho"

Monday, November 2nd at 12:30pm-1:20pm
Gadbois 102

Sponsored by Modern Languages & Literature & Economics Departments

On pioneering Nicaraguan men who responded to the 1998 accusations of sexual abuse leveled at president Daniel Ortega by organizing Men Against Violence, a national campaign to eliminate male chauvinism that has since become a model used worldwide. This challenges assumptions about about "machismo" and Latino culture.

Coffee and Conversation with the Core Council: Bystander Responses to LGBTQ violence. How can I help?

Tuesday, November 3rd at 7pm
LLC, Lower Level Lounge

Sponsored by the Core Council for LGBTQ Students

Our entire community is affected by bullying or violence towards its LGBTQ members. Research shows that when bystanders actively challenge bigoted speech and actions, they amend the emotional and physical toll on the victim and may even change the perspective of the perpetrator. Please take the first step and help clarify a helpful bystander response by attending this event. Coffee & snacks served.

Your Bro Code & Being a Man

Tuesday November 10th at 7:00pm
Location: Hilary Hall Lounge

Sponsored by the Meelia Center & Residential Life & Education

This program will explore what it means to be masculine through popular media and address how men feel like they don't have a role to play in preventing sexual violence. Participants will have the opportunity to reflect on and will begin to define their own masculine identity.

Download Days for Circle of 6 App

Wednesday, November 4th from 11 am - 1pm in Davison Hall & 7pm-9pm in JOA
Thursday, November 5th from 5pm - 7pm in Davison Hall & 7pm-9pm in the Library

Sponsored by Assault & Violence Education & Reporting Team (AVERT)

Join the campus-wide effort and download the Circle of 6 App which is a free violence prevention app. Available both on iOS & Android devices.

The Hookup Culture & the Art of Dating

Monday, November 9th at 7:00pm
Location: Dana Center

Sponsored by Campus Ministry, Unhooked, the Theology Society, AVERT, Student Activities & Leadership, Health Services, & Athletics

Join the discussion with Kerry Cronin, Boston College professor who is devoted to helping young adults address dating concerns, and exploring healthy, romantic relationship building.

Say Something Nice

Thursday, November 5th at 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Alumni Quad near Saint Anselm statue

Sponsored by the Core Council for LGBTQ Students

Come by the Alumni quad, pick up the megaphone, and "Say Something Nice" to a friend or stranger across the quad. "Say Something Nice" is a chance for members of our community to take their minds off all of negative things going on in their lives and focus on the positive.

Tough guise 2: Violence, Manhood & American Culture - Movie & Discussion with Dr. Nihal Çelik

Thursday, November 5th at 6pm
LLC, 1st floor Classroom

Sponsored by the Department of Sociology and Social Work and Residential Life and Education

This movie takes an interesting look at the violent, sexist, and homophobic messages boys and young men routinely receive from virtually every corner of the culture. Join us for a viewing of the video and a discussion on how to empower a new generation of young people to challenge the age-old myth that being a real man means being unemotional, putting up a false front and engaging in violent behavior to self and others. Pizza Dinner will be served.

Walk a Mile in Their Shoes

Friday, November 6th at 3pm
Carr Center

Sponsored by Assault & Violence Education & Reporting Team (AVERT)

A campus wide walk to educate the community about the problem of sexual assault. Walkers are encouraged to wear the opposite gender shoes to get a different perspective of what it is like to walk as another person. Prizes will be rewarded to those walkers who show up with the most creative shoes!

Black and White Day

Friday, November 6th

Black and white are the colors of the Enough is Enough campaign, tying together mourning and remembrance with peace, innocence, and solidarity with victims of violence. Wear black or white to show your support!

Rape and the Justice System with Sgt. Thomas Groux

Tuesday, November 10th at 7 pm
Perini Lecture Hall

Sponsored by Residential Life & Education

Join Sgt. Thomas Groux, a thirty-year veteran of the Winchester, MA police department, as he discusses the book Missoula from the bestselling author Jon Krakauer. Missoula is a powerful narrative about a series of sexual assaults at the University of Montana — stories that report on the humanity behind the atrocities of campus rape. He will include as a part of his talk a history and statistics regarding rape and violence against women, outline of domestic violence laws and current rape laws and justice system response.

Contemplation & Action: Reflections on Human Trafficking

Thursday, November 12th at 7pm
Dana Center

Sponsored by SGA, Residential Life & Education, Campus Ministry, Multicultural Center, Theology & Politics Departments, & NHIOP

Chris Heuertz, a modern day "Freedom Fighter" who was trained under Mother Teresa has worked for over 20 years fighting the global trafficking epidemic. He will be interviewing a young woman who is now a college student in NYC but was born in Indonesia and trafficked in the US by a UN Diplomat.

Campus Safety Strategies

Wednesday, November 4th at 7pm
JOA Hall Basement Lounge

Sponsored by Campus Safety & Security

Join in a frank conversation and learn about personal safety on campus and in everyday life.